O Peace, return to us! Our hearts feel;
 Deep water part us from Deep waters; and
 But in these waters we hear the waves wailing,
 And in our souls there sound
 the wailing song:
 Upon the cross hang not, O
 Father, the suffering Son,
 Like little children draw us
 knee;
 Teach us once more that man is brother—
 Man, who has crucified, petition
 us;
 Behold a ripple as of flowing
 water;
 Behold a gleam as of a Golden Gate;
 Sweet are the feet of these mountains
 Who bear us tidings of beloved Thee;
 The angels have drifted by in sorrow;
 The angels—red sun stinks in the west;
 But with the dews will come
 the morning;
 With Peace, and Love, and
